

Dear Members of Osaka University North American Alumni Association,

Greetings from the OU North American Alumni Association!

Time has gone by so swiftly since the meeting in New York City last June and now it is the time to prepare for the next meeting in 2010. We are pleased to announce that the 5th North American Memorial Alumni Reunion will be held on Friday, June 25, 2010 in Washington D.C. We hope you will encourage one another and attend this memorial event.

For details of the event, please see below and respond back to us by Friday, June 19th.

The fifth meeting will begin with a plenary lecture from former President Miyahara (now Institute of Information and Communications Research Institute (NICT) Chairman) and a reception followed as shown below.
